IN MMEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Phil Paulette, who died two years ago today, May 22, 1954.
Human hands toiled hard to save her,
Prayers and tears seemed all in vain;
Happy angels came and took her,
From this weary world of pain.

Before our eyes she faded,
Growing weaker day by day,
Patiently bearing her suffering,
Until God took her away.

Yes, she sleeps but not forever,
In her lone and silent grave;
Blessed promise, she shall waken,
Jesus died, the lost to save.

In the dawning of the Morning,
When the troubled Night is o'er,
All the buds in beauty blooming,
We will rejoice to see her once more.

—Sadly missed: The Children.

IN MEMORIAM

Entered into rest, March 16, 1956, Mrs. Nathalie E. Schwab, in the eighty-ninth year of her age.

Mrs. Schwab came to Appomattox from Milwaukee after her husband's death, making her home with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McKenzie, her daughter, and became a part of the best in community and church life. Her kindness and gentleness of spirit won devoted friends, and her faithful devotion to her church and the Christian faith so manifest in her life and character were an example and inspiration such that "being dead, she yet speaketh."

We of the Appomattox Court House Church who feel her loss as fellow churchmember and personal friend, wish to express not only our affection and appreciation for her, but our sympathy with her family and our prayer that they may have all the comfort of the beautiful memory she has left them and of the sure hope of the blessedness into which she has gone on ahead.

Appomattox County Holds First 4-H Electric Congress

4-H Club members in Appomattox County, last Saturday, staged their first 4-H Electric Congress. Gene Carson, President of the Appomattox County 4-H Honor Club, presided.

Ten clubs set up exhibits depicting the use of electricity. Blue ward exhibits came from the Spout Spring, Lucky Clover, Oakville and Hebron 4-H Clubs. Appomattox Senior, Hesson and the Vera 4-H Clubs received red awards. In the white award group were the Cullop, Evergreen and Furbush 4-H Clubs. Winners were selected by Miss Flora Belle Williams, Principal of the Appomattox Elementary School. M. G. Harrison, Agricultural Engineer of the Southside Electric Cooperative; Miss Dorothy Gentry, 4-H Clubb Staff, VPI; and Andrew J. Lamberth, Extension Agricultural Engineer, VPI.

The program began at 9:15 A. M. with the welcome from Miss Williams, Principal of the Appomattox Elementary School. Classes for club members attending were, "Science of Seeing," Planning the Study Center and Use of the Twenty-Two Lighting Recipes," "Farmstead and Outdoor Lighting," and "Light Bulbs, the Kinds and Uses of Each." Virginia Electric and Power Company provided the instructors for the above named classes. They were H. M. Kitchen, Agricultural Engineer, South Boston; Mrs. Audry S. Robinson, Home Economist, Farmville; and Mr. M. G. Jones, Agricultural Engineer, South Boston.

Business people in the Appomattox area set up commercial exhibits which demonstrated the use of electricity. These included, Appomattox Hardware Company, Poe Hardware Company, Western Auto Associate Store, all of Appomattox, and Singer Sewing Machine Company and Johns Equipment Company of Farmville.

Club members had an opportunity to place the 4-H Club Exhibits. 4-H Club "T" shirts were awarded the three club members placing the exhibits nearest the placings made by the official judge. Those receiving "T" shirts were Eunice Martin, Spout Spring; Janice McClenny, Appomattox Senior; and Carey Ann Carson, Hebron Community 4-H Club.

Door prizes were made possible by the local business people who provided commercial exhibits for the 4-H Congress, along with the Central Virginia Electric Cooperative of Lovingston, and the Virginia Electric and Power Company of South Boston.

STILL HUNGRY

Riverside, Calif.. Jerry Leighton, 2, still complained of being hungry after attendants at a hospital relieved him of a meal of rusty nails, which had been washed down by a drink of gasoline. Jerry, evidently undamaged, wanted a cookie as he left the hospital.

NOW'S THE TIME TO CLEAN OUT YOUR FREEZER and FILL IT UP!

Maybe the children haven't stored a snowman or any snowballs in your home freezer, but this is a good time to give your freezer a spring cleaning. It's a smart idea to check through your freezer and use up any foods which have been in there long enough.
Right now is also an excellent time to restock your freezer with meat, frozen foods, and other perishables which you can get from us at low quantity prices. You'll get top grade meats, properly chilled, aged, and professionally cut and trimmed to suit your family size and preference. Your meats will be correctly wrapped and sharp frozen at sub-zero temperatures.
